Cocktails

Ginger Beer & Whiskey

By Pete, Our CEO

My favorite summer activity is getting out of Florida and going hiking in the mountains where it's actually cooler.

A simple refreshing drink for the summer that is super easy to make. All you need is whisky/bourbon, ginger beer, and a lime.

1. Get a nice glass cocktail tumbler. You deserve something special.
2. Put in three ice cubes. Get your favorite whiskey or bourbon, depending on your tastes.
3. Get your favorite ginger beer. Goslings is my favorite, but I am not picky.
4. Pour in the bourbon. A shot is usually fine.
5. Pour in a bit more bourbon. You deserve more.
6. Pour about a $\frac{1}{2}$ can of ginger beer to top off.
7. Squeeze in a bit of lime juice.
8. Stir, sit and relax.

The Godfather

A rumored favorite of Don Corleone

By Drew, Our Digital Marketing Manager

My favorite summer activity is celebrating my birthday with friends and family.

You'll need 2 oz Scotch whisky and 1 oz amaretto.

1. Fill a glass about $\frac{2}{3}$ full of ice.
2. Add the whisky. If Ron Burgundy is not your spirit animal and Scotch just isn't your thing, switch it up with a nice bourbon or Irish whiskey.
3. Add the amaretto. For a drier drink, halve the amount. For something sweeter, double it down.
4. Stir well, grab a cigar, and enjoy a flavor you can't refuse.

Our Senior Web Developer:

Juice or blend the following – though juicing is preferred. Be sure to wash everything thoroughly first.

- 1 cucumber
- 3 stalks celery
- 3 kale leaves with stems removed
(Note: Big leaf kale is best – not the sliced ones that come pre-packaged.)
- 1 cup of baby spinach leaves
- 1 piece fresh ginger – approximately a 2-inch chunk.
(Note: Ginger has a strong flavor, so start with a smaller piece.)
- 1 lemon
